

Jampeling Central School

Kanglung: Trashigang
Multi-Media Club

>> August 2024

Weekly News

Volume 1: Issue 1

JCS Appoints New Officiating Vice Principal

Jampeling Central School is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr. Gyeltshen as the new officiating Vice Principal. The appointment was made following the vacancy created by the recent transfer of the former Vice Principal, Mr. Kinlay Dorji.

Mr. Gyeltshen brings a wealth of experience and dedication to his new role. A seasoned educator with over 13 of years of teaching experience, he has been a valuable member of the Jampeling Central School for 8 years, serving as Mathematic teacher.

Expressing gratitude for the opportunity, Mr. Gyeltshen said, "I am honored to take on this new role as officiating vice principal. I am committed to working collaboratively with our dedicated team of teachers to continue providing an exceptional learning environment for our students. My goal is to ensure that every student feels supported and inspired to reach their full potential."

Mr. Ugyen Wangchuk, the Principal of the School, also shared his thoughts on the appointment, stating, "Mr. Gyeltshen has consistently demonstrated outstanding leadership and dedication to our school. We are confident that in their new role as officiating Vice Principal, he will continue to make significant contributions to the success and well-being of our students and staff."

A formal appointment ceremony was held on 13 August with offering of Tashi Khadhar by the staff and student body.

-Pema Dendup (Coordinator)

Declaration of Mid-Term Examination Results

The eagerly awaited Mid-Term Examination results for the academic year 2024 have been officially declared on July 27th, 2024

The midterm result declaration is not just an academic process but it is an assessment of performance where it provides an official assessment of student's performance and understanding. It also serves as feedback for students, helping them to understand their strengths and weakness and areas for the improvement. Result declaration day is a day of happiness and joy. On the other hand, a day of sadness and disappointment. It is a day of pride for the parents of outstanding and topper students and a day of disappointment for parents whose children did not perform well or as their expectations.

Parents were invited to have meeting. Most of the students happened to pass while few were not able to pass. Toppers of each classes was provided with a certificate for their high achievement. The overall topper of the school was Tshering Chezom from 8A with 97%. Some of the students and parents were satisfied with their results.

- Kinzang Lhaden & Tshering Choden 10A

---

PDEO and CDEO Visited for midterm review

In an effort to evaluate the ongoing academic progress and administrative efficiency of schools within the dzongkhag, the Principal Dzongkhag Education Officer (PDEO) and the Chief Dzongkhag Education Officer (CDEO) conducted a comprehensive midterm review visit this week.

The PDEO and CDEO observed classrooms to evaluate teaching methods and student engagement. They also reviewed the schools' academic records and provided feedback on areas that required improvement. One of the key areas of focus was the integration of digital learning tools, which had been introduced earlier in the year to enhance the learning experience.

In addition to academic reviews, the officers also assessed the schools' infrastructure, ensuring that they met the required standards for a conducive learning environment. The cleanliness, safety measures, and availability of essential resources like textbooks and laboratory equipment were scrutinized.

The meeting was held to provide a quality education to the students... Moreover they have checked the conditions at hostel and school. They have recommended to improve the maintenance of the hostel and regarding with the studies. It was such a successful meeting between the teachers and the officers, emphasizing on the development of the overall issues of the school.

-Pema Yangki A & Kinzang Choden 11 Sci

---

Dear Mom and Dad

*I wish I had a words to tell
How much you two mean to me
I am the person who I am today
Because you two let me be*

*Your unconditional love
Made me happy, strong and feel safe
Your teaching and example,
Made me confident, mature*

*In the world, there is no mother
And Father better than my own
MOM and DAD I LOVE YOU

-Sangay lhamo 9 b

Mistaken

Oh my mother
How did I bother?
I don't recall anything
But I must have done something

Wait! Let me ask my brother
He might know what I did to our mother

My dear brother,
What did I do to our mother?

Suddenly, my mom came,
She apologized to me

Then she told me
She broke my favorite mug.

-Tshering Tshomo 8B

---

Book Talk Episode – 11

On 6th August literary committee conducted a Book Talk in our school MPH hall. The participants were from class 11 and 12 science. Who did a Book Talk on Dzongkha and English? Class 11 science did a Book Talk on English. While 12 science did a book talk on Dzongkha books... After that, Teachers started to vote for participants. The English book talk winner was Kinzang Deki from 11 science and Dzongkha book talk winner was Pema Wangmo from 12 science. The winners were awarded certificates to enhance reading in future.

-Tashi Choden 11 Sc

Scout Investiture Ceremony to mark 25th Years of Scouting

On 1st August 2024, Thursday, Jampeling Central School held its Scouts Day Celebration, an event marked by tradition and the welcoming of new member into the scouting community. In the evening program commenced with the singing of the scout anthem, setting a tone of unity and pride. This was followed by a significant ceremony where newly joined scouts, along with those who had not yet received their scarfs, took their oath. In a moment of solemnity and honor, the principal personally presents the scarfs to the scouts, symbolizing their official induction into the troops. Following the oath-taking ceremony, the new scouts practiced three scout yells, showcasing their enthusiasm and commitment to the scouting principles. This practice not only reinforced their spirits but also highlighted the importance of teamwork within the troop. The program concluded on a high note leaving participants with a sense of achievement and unity. As the evening drew to close, everyone dispersed carrying with them pride of being part of a respected and enduring tradition.

The Scout Day celebration was a prove to the dedication and the spirit of the scout and their leader, ensuring that the value of scout continue to thrive within the school community.

-Tshewang Dema 9C

Rangjung CS Defeats Jampeling CS at the Football Match of the East

The Bhutan Higher Secondary School football Tournament started off between the two rivals; Rangjung CS and Jampeling CS. The two groups played well, invigorating all their cheering onlookers from the outset till the end. Rangjung CS emerged victorious over Jampeling CS with a commanding 3-0 win. The match, held at Sherubtse Stadium, was attended by a lively crowd eager to witness the clash between the two football powerhouses.

From the onset, Rangjung CS displayed a strong offensive strategy, pressuring Jampeling's defense and creating multiple scoring opportunities. The first goal came early in the first half when striker of Rangjung CS skillfully maneuvered past Jampeling's defense to score a stunning goal, setting the tone for the rest of the game.

Jampeling CS, despite their efforts to counterattack, struggled to break through Rangjung's solid defense. The team's attempts were repeatedly thwarted by striker, the goalkeeper for Rangjung CS, who delivered a stellar performance, making several crucial saves to maintain a clean sheet. As the match progressed, Rangjung CS continued to dominate the field. Their striker doubled the lead with a powerful shot from outside the penalty box, leaving Jampeling's defense in disarray. The goal was celebrated with loud cheers from the Rangjung supporters.

The third and final goal came in the last minutes, when another player of Rangjung CS capitalized on a defensive error by Jampeling, sealing the victory with a precise finish. Despite their best efforts, Jampeling CS could not recover, and the match ended with Rangjung CS securing a decisive 3-0 win. "We played with great determination and teamwork today," said Captain, the captain of Rangjung CS, in a post-match interview. "Our strategy was to stay aggressive and capitalize on our scoring opportunities, and I'm proud of how we executed that plan."

Jampeling CS. S.S.I, Mr. Kinley Dorji, acknowledged the team's shortcomings but remained optimistic about their future matches. "It was a tough game, and we faced a very strong opponent. We will learn from this experience and come back stronger," he said.

The victory solidifies Rangjung CS's position as a formidable team in the region, and their fans are eagerly looking forward to the upcoming matches. Meanwhile, Jampeling CS will be looking to regroup and refine their strategies for future games.

-Kinley Wangchuk 9 D

Infinite Love

There was a blind girl who hated herself just because she is blind, she hated everyone except her friends. He is always there for her. She said that if she could see the world, she would marry her boyfriend. One day someone donated a pair of eyes to her and later after the surgery she was able to see the blue sky again. Her lover told her now that she could see the light again, whether she would marry him or not. The girl was shocked to see that her lover was also blind and refuses to marry him. With broken heart he walks away and writes a letter to the girl that the pair of eyes she got was donated by him. His love for her was beyond words. In the end the girl regrets her actions and when she decides to go back to him, he had already left the world without eyes but with love and memories he had with her.

- Yeshi Wangmo 8B

“The House of Sixty Fathers”

Book Review by Dechen Choden -10 B

About Author- Meindert Dejong

He was born on March 4, 1906 in Wierum, Friesland, Netherlands. He died on July 16, 1991 at the age of 85 at Michigan, US.

The House of Sixty Fathers received the Josette Frank Award (then named the children's Book Award of the child study Association) in 1956. It was a Newbery runner-up in 1957.

Review of Book:

When Japanese soldiers burn Tien Pao's village, his family escapes to Hengyang, China, on a small boat called a Sampan. Tien Pao's parents look for work at an American military airfield. They take Tien Pao's baby sister and tell him to stay on the boat until his parents return. The Tien Pao rest the next day, the boat loss and carries him back into enemy territory. He awakes in terror and prays to the river god for help. His only comfort on the stormy water is the family's pig, which he names Beauty-of-the-Republic after his sister. One day, Tien Pao happen to see the Japanese shoot down an American plane and he tries to help wounded airman escape and cares the man as they slowly hike out of the danger zone. A group of Chinese finds Tien Pao just before he blacks out from hunger and takes him to their barracks, where sixty soldiers reside. They ask the boy to tell his story and was excited to learn that he saved their squadron leader, Lieutenant Hamsun. As the all the sixty soldiers dotes him and the Chinese interpreter calls them Tien Pao's sixty fathers. When the Lieutenant recovers and return to the base, he and Tien happen to enjoy their reunion. Lt.Hamsun helped the boy find his family by flying over the plane through the crowds. At last Tien Pao sees his mother at the airfield and reunited with his family.

Theme:

- The House of Sixty Fathers tells or talks about the hope, kindness of strangers and good judgement to strangers.
- One thing I liked in the book is Tien Pao saving the wounded airman (Lieutenant Hamsun) from the danger zone even though it was a very difficult and dangerous tasks.